RE: Committee Meeting Agenda

A meeting of the Academic Standards Committee has been set for Wednesday, October 4, in HOL 354, 11 am – noon. The following items are on the agenda:

UF Law Handbook: Academic Probation and Exclusion

Students who fall below a 2.0 cumulative GPA at the end of a semester or term will be put on academic probation. If they remain below a 2.0 at the end of summer term, or if they are below 2.0 at the end of spring term and do not enroll in summer term, they will be excluded from the college at the end of summer or spring term, respectively. Students who are academically excluded may petition the Academic Standards Committee for readmission by the date designated by the assistant dean for Student Affairs. The Academic Standards Committee will not entertain petitions from students who have received a grade of "I*" in one-fourth or more of the credit hours for which they were enrolled in the term prior to exclusion. The decision of the Academic Standards Committee is final and may incorporate appropriate terms and conditions.

On occasion, when a student has a GPA below 2.0 at the end of the first semester, the Associate Dean, after consultation with the student, may require the student to repeat courses during the following term. The Associate Dean also may require that a student on probation take less than a prescribed course load and less than the minimum hours required of full-time students under ABA-accrediting standards, in order for the student to meet the terms of probation.
